Eldridge appointed to Arkansas Forestry Commission

LITTLE ROCK – Governor Mike Beebe has appointed Mary Elizabeth Eldridge to the Board of the Arkansas Forestry Commission. Eldridge will serve the remainder of the late Commissioner Randy Crowder’s term, set to expire on Jan. 14, 2013.

Eldridge is the Director of Programs for The Ross Foundation, and serves on the Arkansas Forestry Association Board of Directors, Arkansas Community Foundation Board, the Baptist Health Foundation Board, the Clark County Community Foundation Board and the Camp Aldersgate Board. She is the current president of the Arkadelphia Junior Auxiliary, and an elder at First Presbyterian church in Arkadelphia.

The Arkansas Forestry Commission offers its programs to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability and is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
